What Are Supplemental Services?

Supplemental Services are free tutoring programs paid for through the federal government under section 1116(e) of the No Child Left Behind Act. This program is brand new.

- The State Department of Education places approved tutoring providers on a state list.
- School districts must notify the parents of all eligible children that they can choose a tutoring provider from the approved state list for their child.
- Student eligibility is typically based on eligibility for free and reduced price lunches.

Who Is Sylvan Education Solutions?

With 15 years of experience, Sylvan Education Solutions is the nation's leading provider of tutoring and supplemental educational services. Sylvan Education Solutions has tutored more than 1 million students in reading and math. Over 900 schools are currently partnering with Sylvan Education Solutions.

Sylvan Helps Your Child Succeed

Sylvan's intensive tutoring will help your child get better grades, build confidence and increase self-esteem. Sylvan's highly trained and certified teachers are specially prepared in reading and math instruction.

Sylvan creates successful students by addressing the areas in reading and math where they need the most help. Every student receives personalized attention and positive reinforcement from Sylvan teachers.

- Sylvan creates a personal learning plan for each child.
- Small group learning: 6-8 students per teacher.
- Positive feedback and motivation.
- Parent and teacher involvement.

When Is the Program?

Your child will attend two after-school sessions each week – on either a Monday/Wednesday or Tuesday/Thursday schedule. Each session runs 60-90 minutes in length. In some schools, Saturday classes may also be available. The program runs for up to six months, through the end of the school year.

Where Are the Sylvan Programs?

Sylvan Education Solutions programs are located in over 900 schools around the country. Tutoring sessions for your child will take place at your school or in your neighborhood.
